Celebrity Jobs

We recently carried out a job in Hanch for a couple who had bought two 2 seater sofas second hand. They simply wanted them cleaning.

Half way through the job I enquired if they had purchased them locally, "No" they said; "London". In fact she said "they've probably had a few famous bums on them".

"Oh yes?" I said, it turns out they were off the set of This Morning with Philip Schofield and Hollie Willoughby!

A few months ago we had an email for carpet cleaning, I arranged with the lady a time and date. Upon arrival I measured up and gave the lady a written quote.

"Fine" she said, "Would you have time to do a bedroom carpet?" No problem. She led me into the bedroom, whereupon I noticed West Bromwich Albion memorabilia on the windowsill. "Are you West Brom fans" I asked. "Yes" she said "We like the Albion." To which I replied, "I actually work at West Bromwich Albion on match days".

"Oh what do you do?" she asked "I work for the bookie."

I replied. "Oh" she said, "You will know my partner he works at West Bromwich Albion."

"What does he do?" I asked...

"He's the centre forward" she replied!

Supporting St Giles Hospice

Many of you know that St Giles Hospice is our nominated charity. For every on-line booking we are able to donate £5 to St Giles Hospice. This means we have presented a cheque for £235!

Furthermore I also give talks throughout the year to various social clubs and societies (cleaned court and Bowled) with my fee always going to St Giles Hospice.

The talks are largely a series of amusing stories following my life's Journey. I recently received an acknowledgement from St Giles Hospice that in four years I had raised £1000 from my talks. Currently I have six dates booked for 2014.

Design Competitions

Many of you may know over the past five years we have worked with six local schools where the children have designed various literature that we use regularly within the business.

Our most recent was with Saxon Hill Special School, with the winning design drawn by Anjanita. She won £25 WH Smith gift vouchers and there was also five £10 runner up gift vouchers; £50 was also donated to the school. Other schools include Lichfield Cathedral School, St Michaels Primary School, The Croft Primary School, Henry Chadwick Community Primary School, The Richard Crosse CE(VA) Primary School, Kings Bromley.

Caption Competition

All entries receive free can spot remover.
Winner £50 of goodies.

What our customers say

Neil from CD did a brilliant job on all my carpets and curtains with minimum disruption. Would 100% recommend.
Mrs J. Lichfield

Neil worked so hard. He is friendly, trustworthy and genuinely a really lovely chap. He bends over backwards to help whenever he can. Thoroughly recommended.
Mrs L. Burton

Neil was a joy to have in our house. Wonderful job. Absolutely delighted with the finished product – He can come again.
Mrs D. Streethay

Recently had our suite cleaned and were very pleased with the service and the end result. Work completed efficiently.
Mrs H. Shenstone

Arrived 9.30am prompt, explained cleaning procedures. Good results of carpets and rugs which were cleaned.
